Art Unit: 1656

This Office action is in response to Applicants' amendments received February 28, 2008. Upon review of Applicants' amendments, it appears a restriction requirement is necessary because each inhibitor of angiogenesis is viewed as a distinct product that can be used for the method of the instant invention. Applicants' remarks will be addressed once an invention is elected.

Claims 1-131, 147, 155-170, 173-176 are canceled. Claims 148-154 are withdrawn. Claims 132-146, 171-172 are under consideration.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

aggregating protein, messenger protein, messenger protein receptor protein, protein of an agent of an infectious disease, protein of an agent of a non-infectious disease, interferon protein, interferon receptor protein, protein antigen, growth factor protein, enzyme protein, heterologous protein of transformed cells

protein of hepatitis B, transmissible gastroenteritis poorly antigenic autologous tumor cell proteins, interferons, interferon receptor protein glycosil-hydrolase, peroxidase, transferase, kinase, phosphatase, sulfatase, ligase, restriction enzyme, reverse-transcriptase, nucleic-acid polymerase

insulin, gastrin, opiod, calcitonin, malarial blood-stage antigen

Art Unit: 1656

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

aggregating protein, messenger protein, messenger protein receptor protein, protein of an agent of an infectious disease, protein of an agent of a non-infectious disease, interferon protein, interferon receptor protein, protein antigen, growth factor protein, enzyme protein, heterologous protein of transformed cells (claim 132)

protein of hepatitis B, transmissible gastroenteritis (claim 142) poorly antigenic autologous tumor cell proteins, interferons, interferon receptor protein (claim 145)

glycosyl-hydrolase, peroxidase, transferase, kinase, phosphatase, sulfatase, ligase, restriction enzyme, reverse-transcriptase, nucleic-acid polymerase (claim 146)

insulin, gastrin, opiod, calcitonin, malarial blood-stage antigen (claim 171)

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 132, 142, 146, 171.

Art Unit: 1656

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each of the species are structurally and functionally distinct.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
